IMPORTANT NOTES FOR CRIME VICTIMS

Victim Rights: All crime victims in South Carolina have rights under the Victims Bill of Rights, including:

- The right to be treated with dignity and respect
- The right to be informed about case proceedings
- The right to protection from the accused
- The right to apply for victim compensation
- The right to be heard at sentencing and parole hearings

Free Services: Most services listed are FREE and confidential for crime victims.

No Discrimination: Services do not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

Documentation: While some programs may require documentation of the crime (police report, protective order, etc.), many will provide immediate assistance in crisis situations.

Confidentiality: Domestic violence and sexual assault programs maintain strict confidentiality to protect victim safety.
