On August 17, 1996 Richland County Sheriff's deputies responded to the Rosewood boat landing at the end of Rosewood Drive, just down from the SC State Fairgrounds. Witnesses reported that a man had been stabbed. When deputies arrived, they discovered the body of Jack Robinson. Witnesses described how Robinson met with a man and walked with him into a wooded area. Shortly thereafter, they heard Jack screaming for help as he stumbled out of the woods. The suspect, in the composite above, was described as a Latino male about 5'10", 160 lbs., mustache, wearing Ray-Ban style sunglasses and about 25-35 years old. Jack lived on Ranch Road and worked at Moncrief Army Hospital on Ft. Jackson in the drug dispensary.
